WANG CHEN

PROFILE

Hi! I'm Wang CHEN , 3 years as Data Scientist , 6 years as Automotive Innovation engineer and also a full stack web developer. I specialise in connected services and manufacturing process optimization. I have multi country working experience, and speak 3 languages. I hope my experience in both engineering and data science could bridge the gap and create new value spaces.

DATA SCIENTIST
Sep 2019 - Present

- FaurSound for shopfloor noise quality control (Saving = ~200 EUR/year/production line)
- Occupant monitoring for drowsiness detection, posture evaluation (cockpit of the future)
- Build web app for real time manufacturing production data analysis
- Deploy ML model in constrained manufacturing environment
- Production line data analysis, explore 10 years production line data to optimise process
- Welding process quality inspection, use 3D welding scan data to verify welding quality
- Actively follow state of art research/papers and continuously learning
- Promote data mindset and provide training for internal colleagues

Python · TypeScript · Tensorflow · PyTorch · Scikit-learn · SQL · Azure
